„Art is a daughter of freedom.“ (Friedrich von Schiller)

In a radio broadcast artists are faced with the questions like:

„What does art mean for you?“

„Where does your creativity come from?“

„What is your slogan?“

Did you ever answer these questions to yourself?

CREATIVE DAYS IN FLORENCE

HERWIG MARIA STARK was „guest student“ at ANGEL RAMIRO SANCHEZ for one month and addicted himself to the Italian Art of Painting.

CREATIVE DAYS IN PICH

The pupils (4th class) of the VS Pich a. d. Enns in Styria (Austria) were faced with completely different questions and challenges in April 2009.

HERBERT BAUER, member of BIENNALE AUSTRIA and holder of the “Golden Badge of Honour” of the country of Styria (Austria), was invited to the CREATIVE DAYS in April.

So the Dachstein-massif was minimized and new designed for the living room, a „Butterfly Tree“ created and the schoolhouse immortalized.

„For me that is exactly the right start into spring and I feel how I get rid of old charges and how my own creativity starts to flow again.“, said Herbert Bauer.

CREATIVE DAYS IN VIENNA „METROPOLIS“

METROPOLIS

Helga Erlinger, journalist, was inspired by the paintings of METROPOLIS by HERWIG MARIA STARK and created out of that a short movie.
